

A MAN OF NATURE

AUGUST 1976

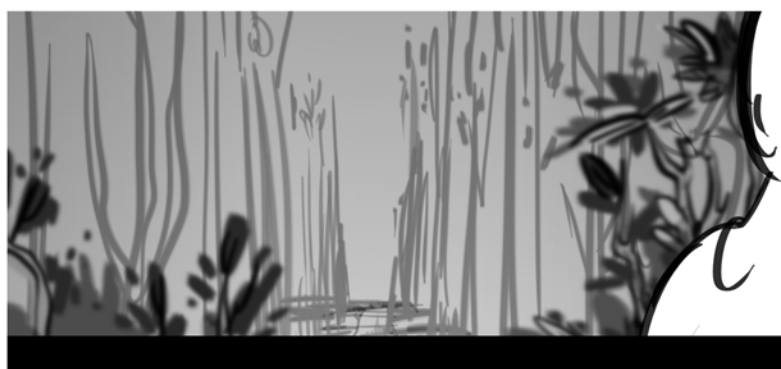

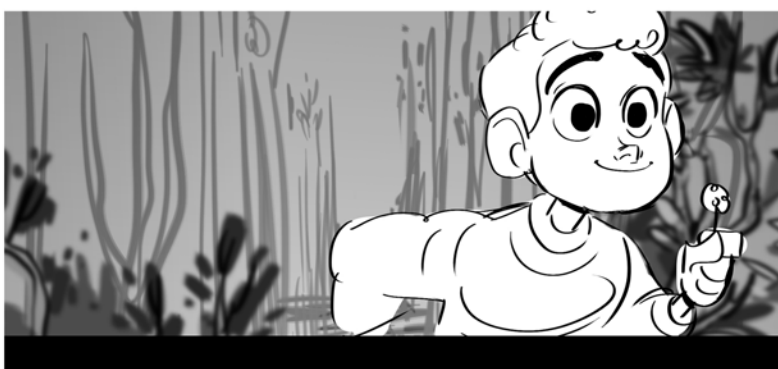

by KENNEDY TARRELL

MIKE: Come on, Davey.

DAVEY: Sorry! Coming!

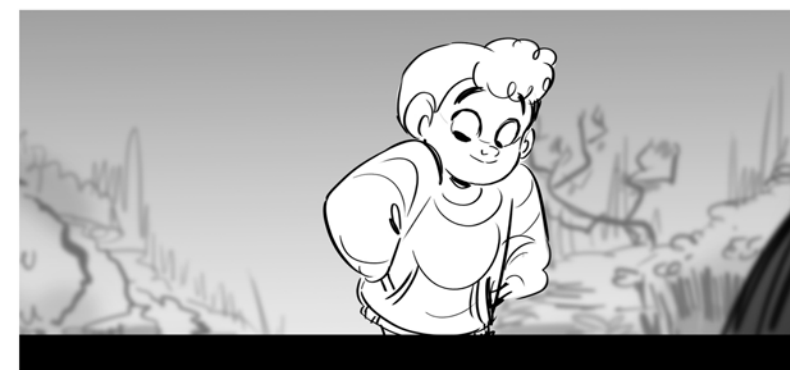

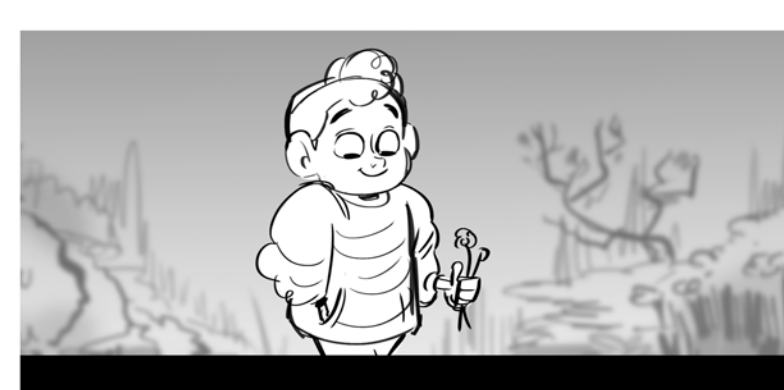

FATHER: Keep a sharp eye out, boys.

FATHER: Keep a sharp eye out, boys.

MIKE: Shh! I'm looking for tracks!

MIKE: Shh! I'm looking for tracks!

DAVEY: Are the tracks gonna hear you?

FATHER (O/S) : Alright, you two.

FATHER: I'm goin' on ahead.

FATHER: Meet me at the river.

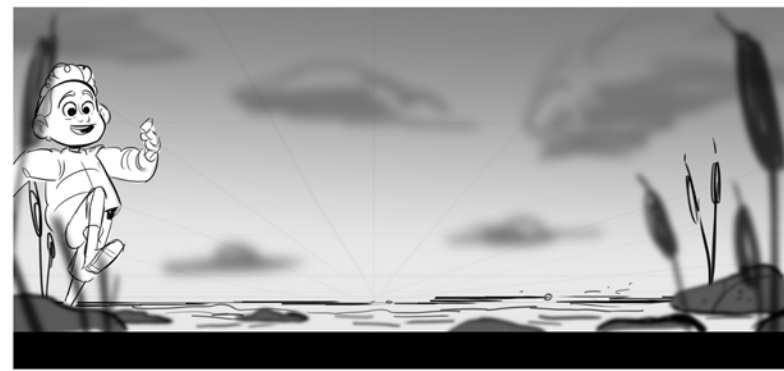

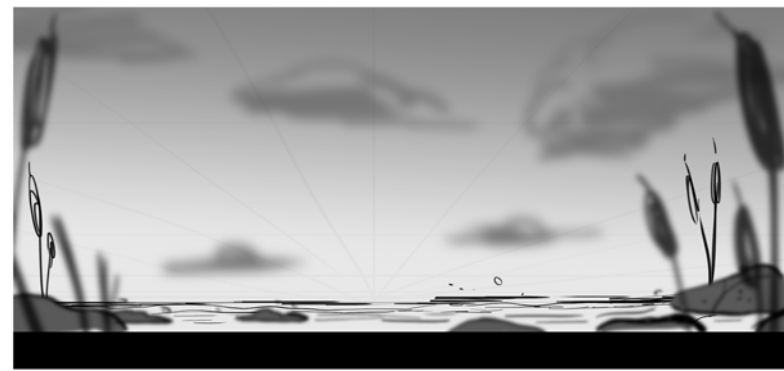

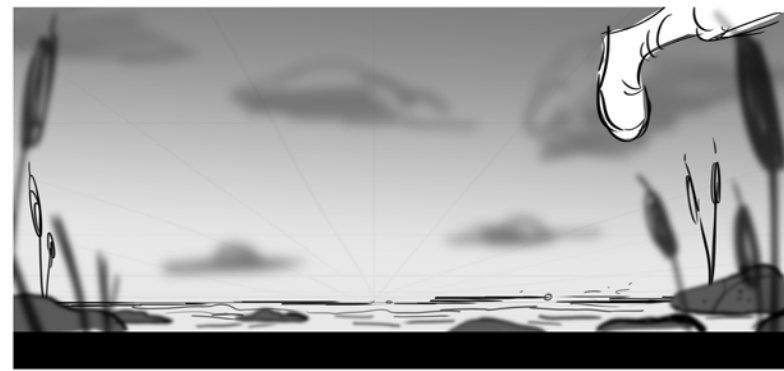

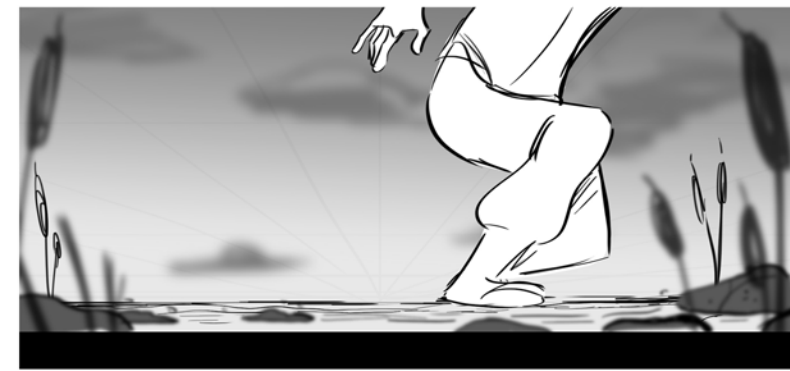

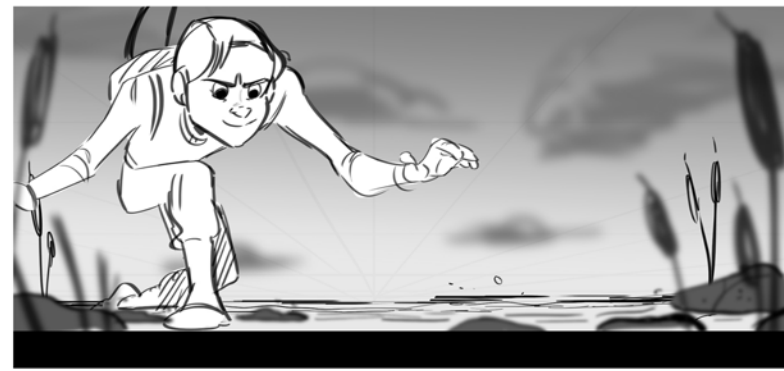

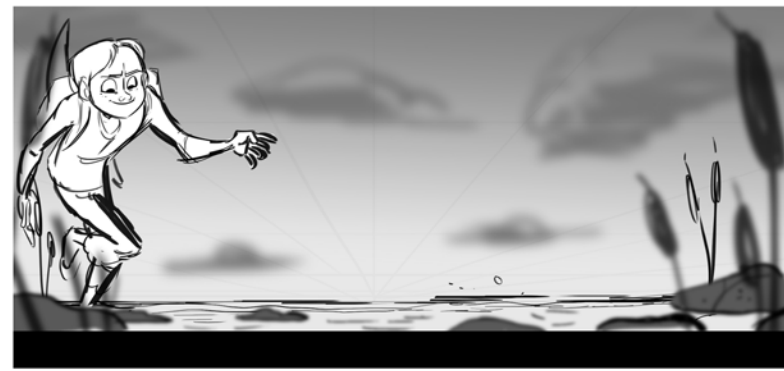

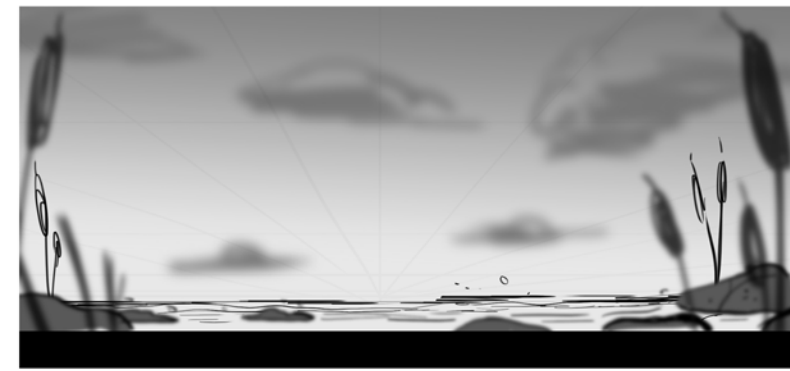

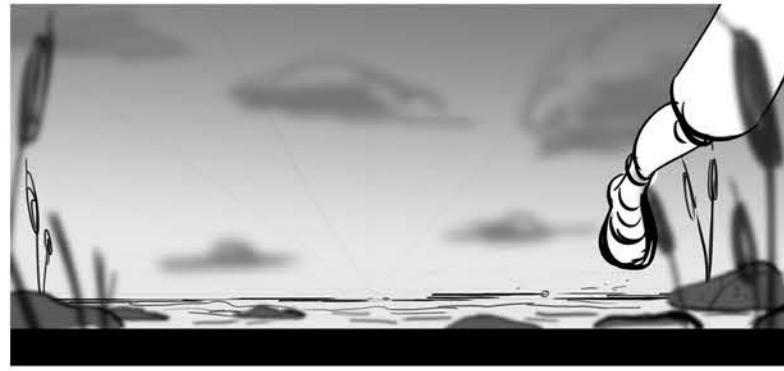

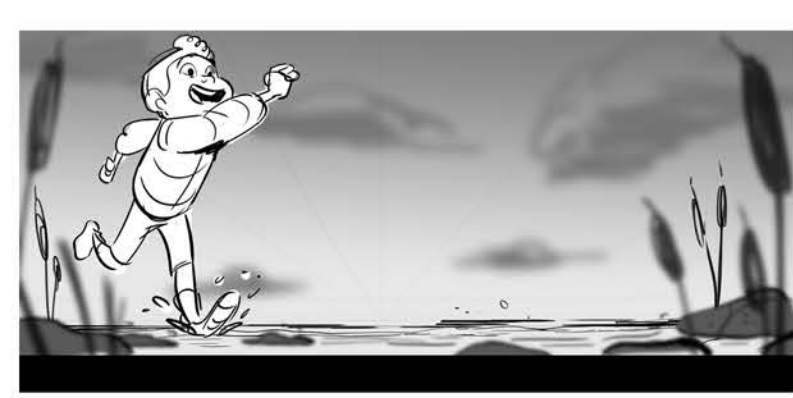

FATHER: Mike,

FATHER: watch over your brother.

Mike: Streams lead toward

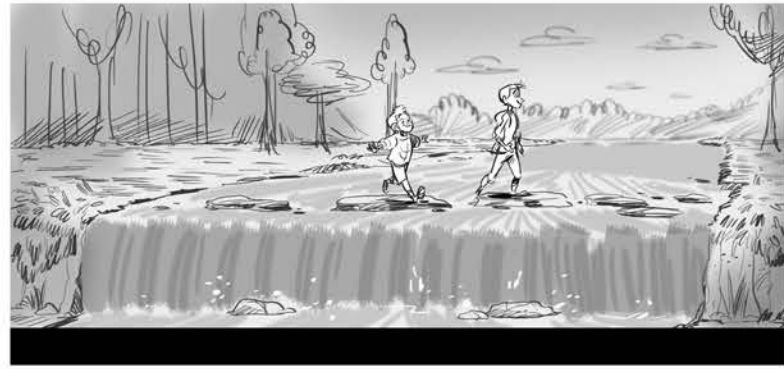

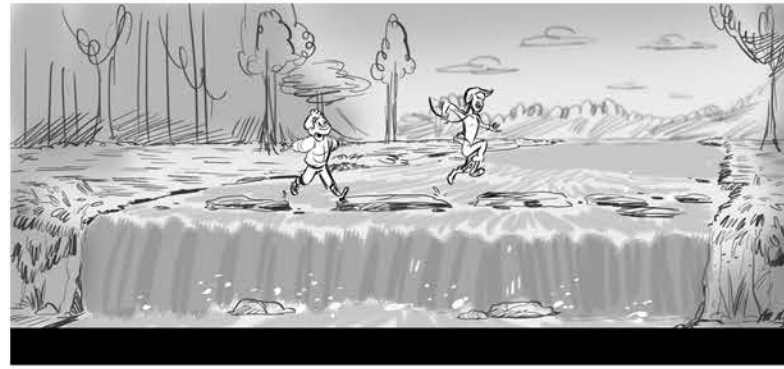

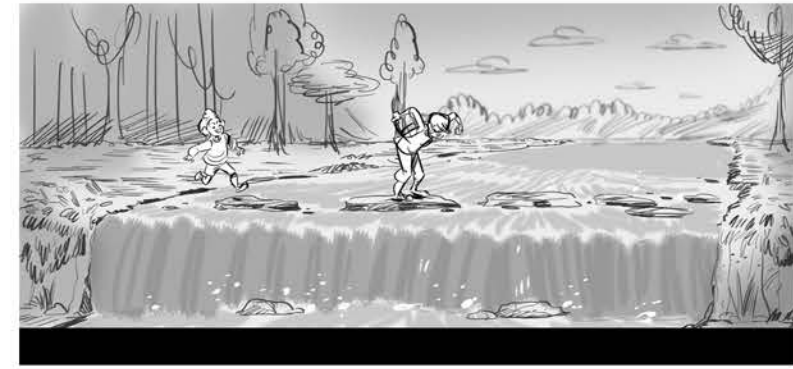

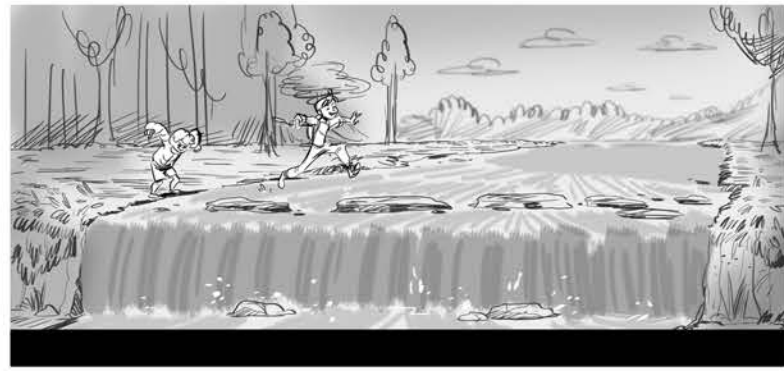

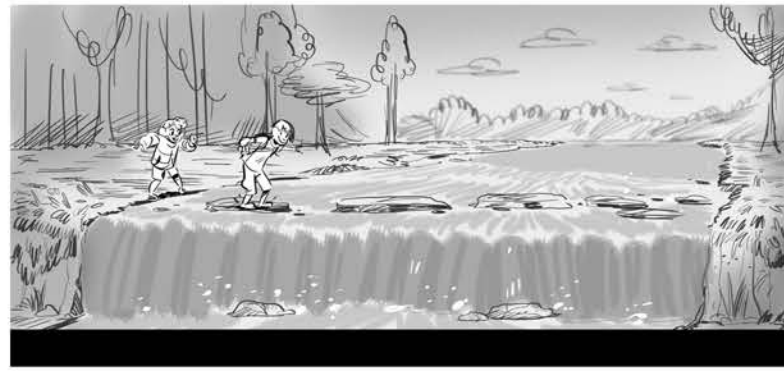

Mike: the river!

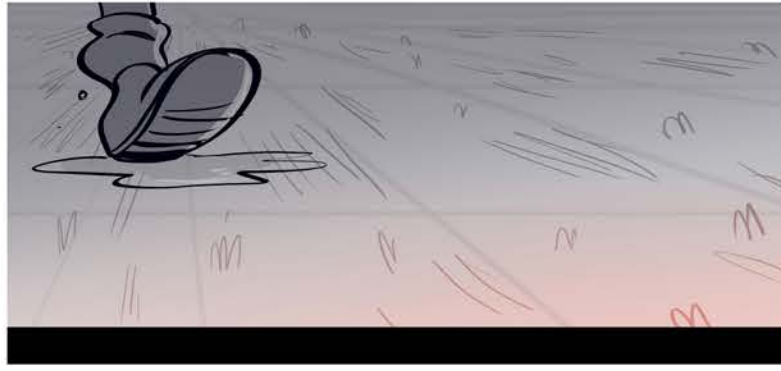

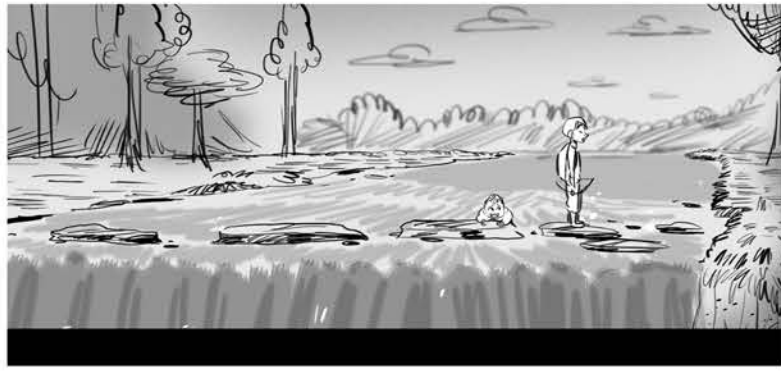

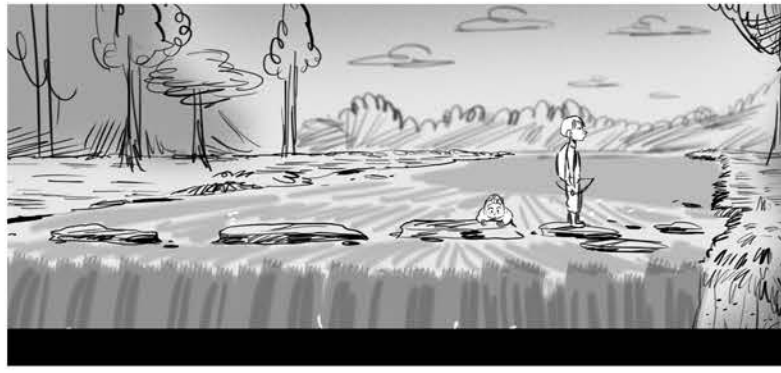

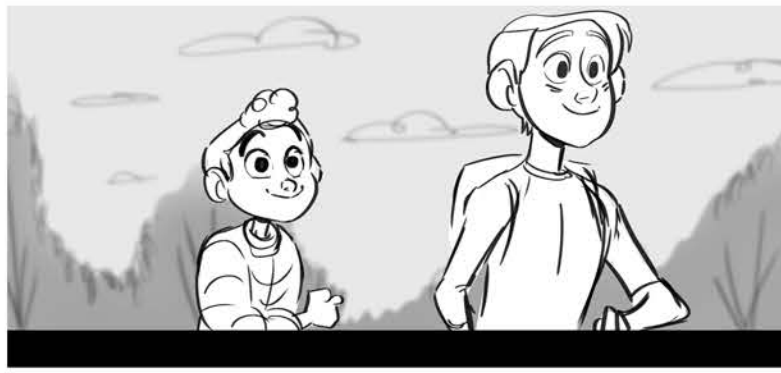

Mike: We're getting close!

Davey: Ooh!

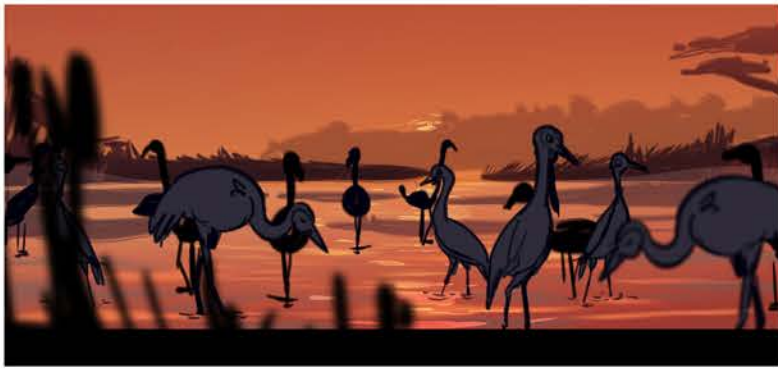

MIKE and DAVEY: (Laughing and cheering)

MIKE and DAVEY: (Laughing and cheering)

DAVEY: Woooo!

DAVEY: They're beautiful.

MIKE: They're sitting ducks,

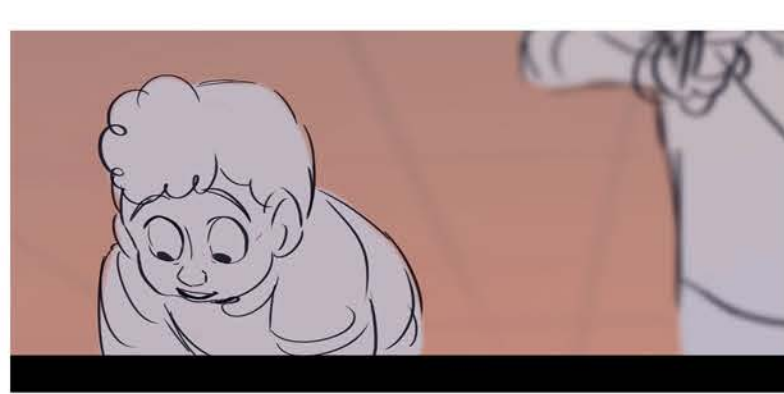

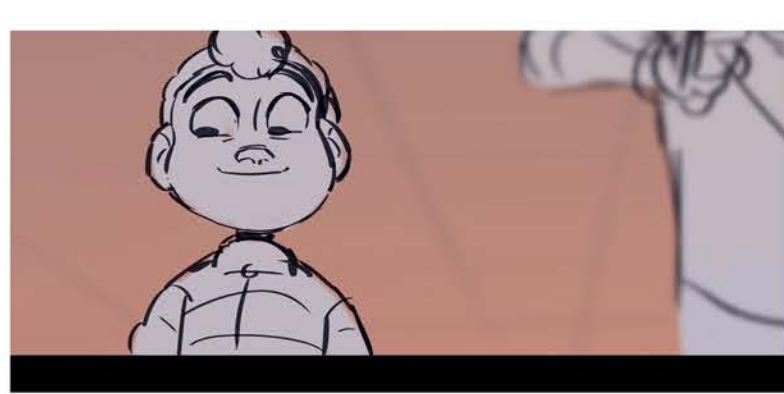

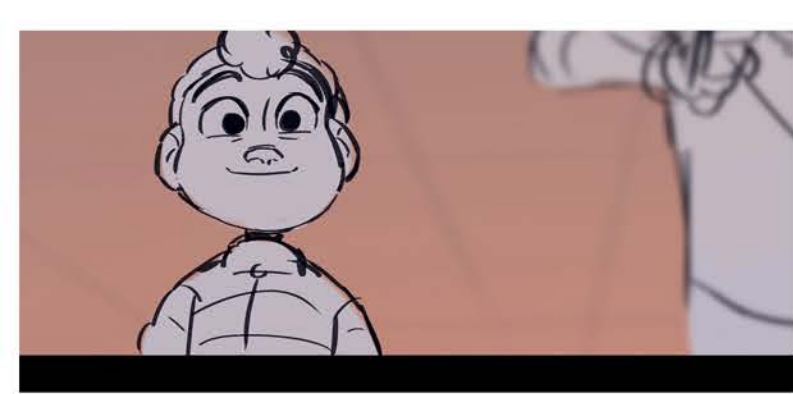

MIKE: that's what they are.

MIKE: that's what they are.

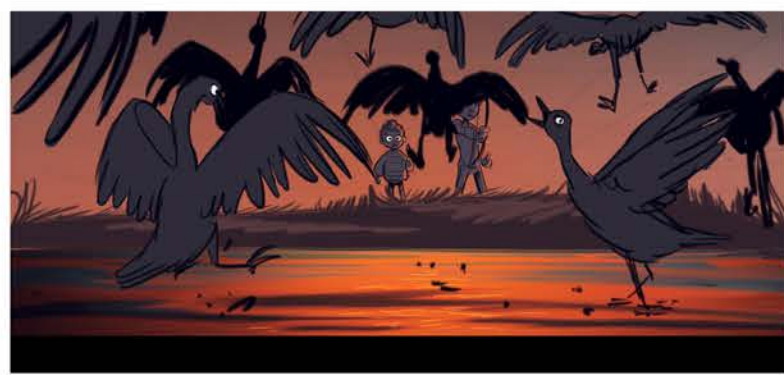

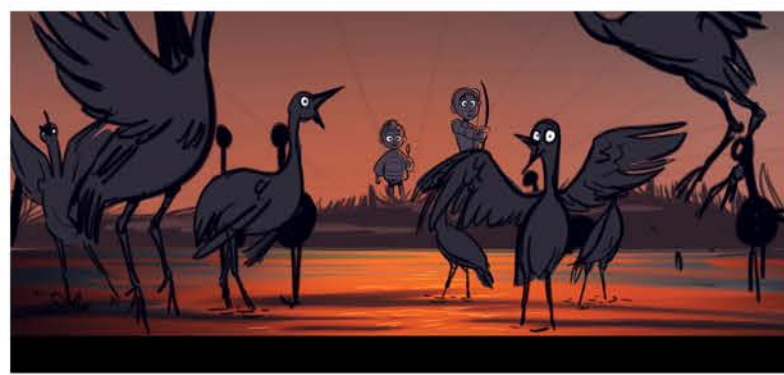

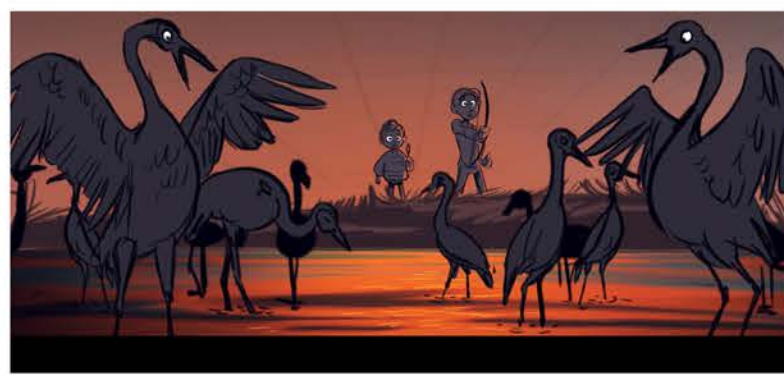

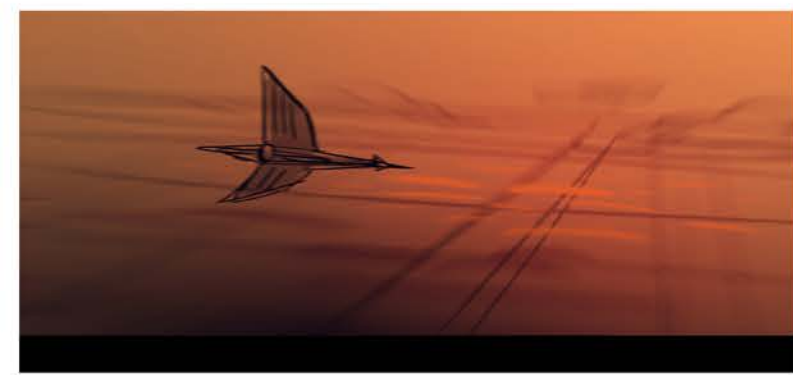

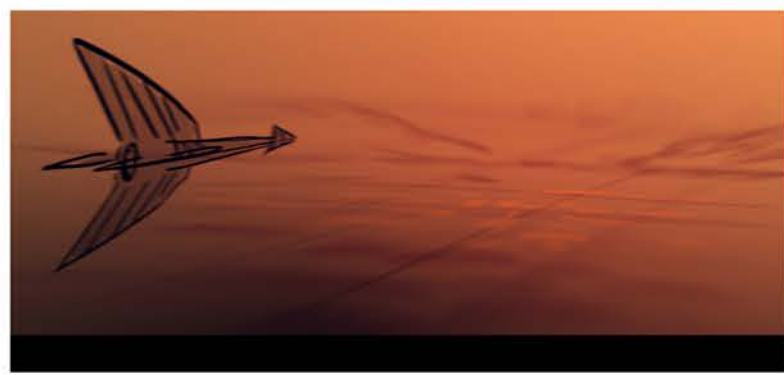

DAVEY: I found

DAVEY: A feather!

DAVEY: Oops!

MIKE: UGH!

MIKE: Do you even know

MIKE: anything ABOUT hunting?!

MIKE: You're supposed to be

MIKE: A MAN!

MIKE: OF NATURE!

MIKE: Like dad.

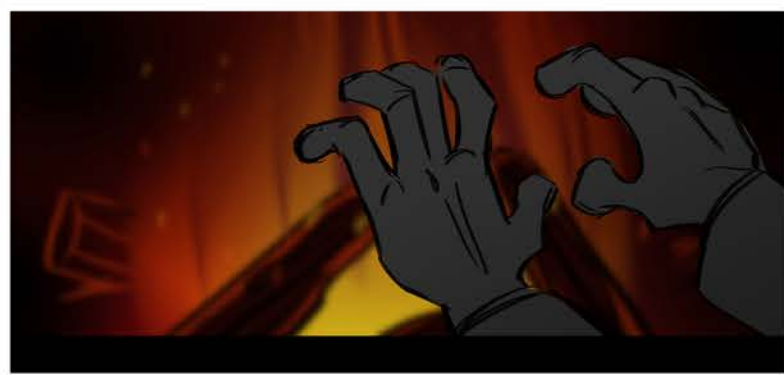

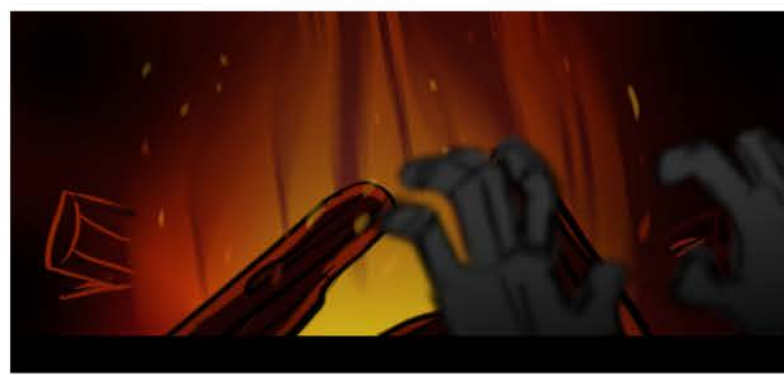

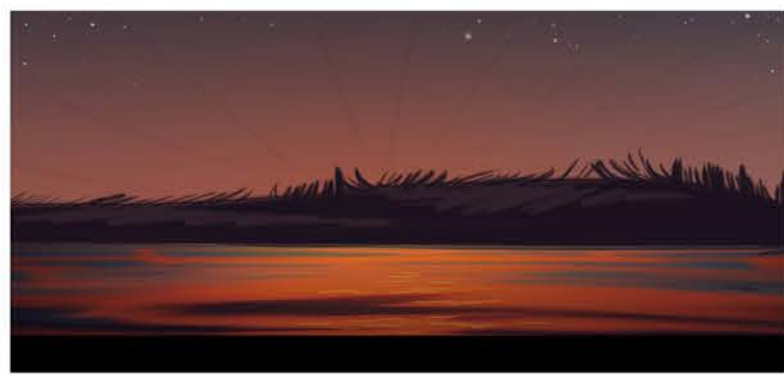

MIKE: And me.

MIKE: And me.

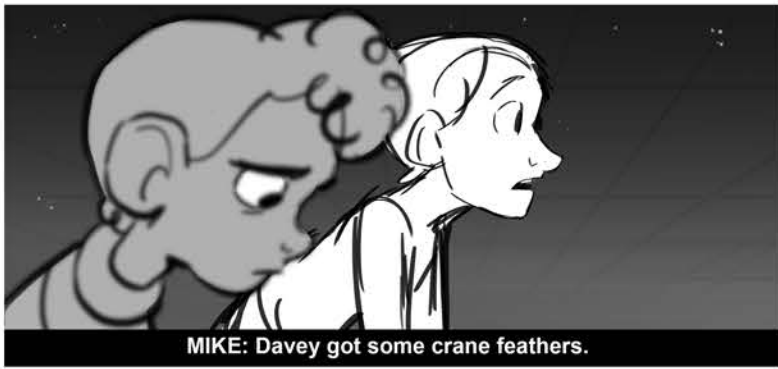

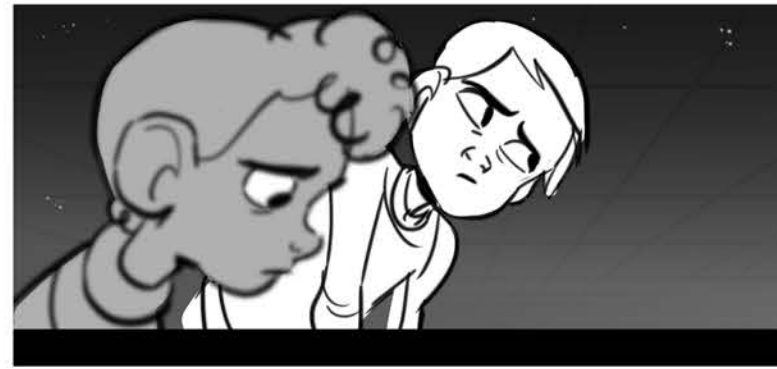

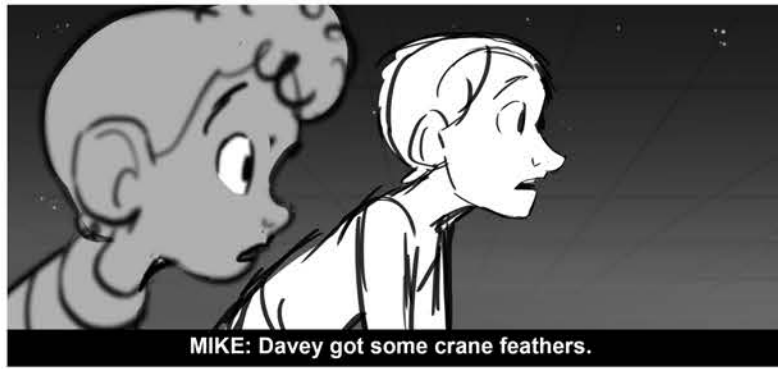

FATHER: Did you boys find anything good?

DAVEY: No.

MIKE: Davey got some crane feathers.

MIKE: Davey got some crane feathers.

MIKE: and a rock.

DAVEY: And flowers!

FATHER: That's great work!
